Humanism is a progressive philosophy of life that, without supernaturalism, affirms our ability and responsibility to lead ethical lives of personal fulfillment that aspire to the greater good of humanity. The life stance of Humanism – guided by reason, inspired by compassion, and informed by experience – encourages us to live life well and fully.

Evolutionary Eco-Humanism

Friday, June 24, 6:00 pm

Hilton Columbus Downtown, Edna Boise Hopkins Room

Humanism is too often assumed to be outdatedly anthropocentric. It is therefore crucial to evoke green activism within our own ranks. Fortunately, the originator of an evolutionary form of humanism in the mid 20th century, the late Julian Huxley, can also inspire an ecological form today.
